

shepherding a child's heart

PARENTING CONFERENCE

APPLICATION & FOLLOW UP QUESTIONS

1. Are you actively instructing your children to have a biblical worldview? Where and how could you grow in this area.
2. How well do you connect discipline to your formative instruction?
3. Do you find yourself more in crises management than pro-active training of your children?
4. Where do you need to grow and/or make adjustments in bringing biblical authority in your home?
5. Do you find that you avoid issues and potential conflicts that may result, in order to keep the peace? If so, what do you think are the consequences to your child?
6. How much do you concentrate on adjusting behaviour rather than dealing with heart attitudes? What reasons would you give for your focus on behaviour as opposed to the heart?
7. How much of your discipline is done in anger?
8. How do you respond to the teaching regarding spanking in the discipline of your child?
9. Do you recognise that children are fundamentally worshippers and will either worship God or idols? How can you help to develop worship to God in your child?
10. Are there any areas of parenting that you and your spouse disagree on? If so, what are those areas?
11. Where would you recognise the need of help in your parenting?
12. Are there any areas of the teaching you received that you would disagree with?
